

MINUTES OF THE PARISH COUNCIL MEETING

Wednesday 5th March 2019 Cliddesden Memorial Hall 7.30pm

Present Parish Councillors Alan Tyler (Chair), Simon Barker, Mark Gifford, Hazel Metz.
Clerk Susan Turner. Guests Ward Cllr Mark Ruffell, PC Andy Reid, Tree Warden Alison Mosson.

- 1 WELCOME
- 2 PUBLIC SESSION
 - 2.1 Parish Spring Clean of Saturday 2nd March

Great success, massive thank you to all who helped, 31 people joined in, thanks and apologies also to those who had to be turned away. Requested the Parish Council buy equipment, litter grabbers etc, suggested 12 sets.
 - 2.2 Light pollution

Sony security lights – Building Manager contacted, reportedly orange lights will be turned back to white.
 - 2.3 Watercourse

Need clear understanding of statutory responsibilities of riparian ownership, powers of Parish. District Councils, potential for enforcement.
- 3 PC REID REPORT
 - 3.1 Incidents reported since last meeting

04/01 Damage road accident with a deer
01/02 Tree across B3046 affecting low power cable
25/02 Suspicious lights seen at School – AIO
Plus domestic disputes x 5
 - 3.2 Crime reported since last meeting

Criminal damage – related to domestic disputes – x 2
- 4 WARD COUNCILLOR REPORT
 - 4.1 Moto application

Situation remains case officer minded to refuse. Further representations from Highways England of 31st Jan requiring additional information from applicant by 30th April. Outcome of Southlea Meadow appeal encouraging as demonstrates robustness of Landscape Policy. Supports its use as an important policy.
 - 4.2 Housing numbers

Present agreed housing allocation is 850 dwellings per annum (dpa). Recent underdelivery at c800dpa requires 20% buffer to five year land supply but this is already calculated and allowed for in the land supply. Delivery this year should achieve 850, once achieve 950 dpa buffer requirement will only be 10%.
 - 4.3 Neighbourhood plan

BDBC five-year review in 2021 so will be beginning the process this year. This means the housing figure will change (likely be 975dpa), new spatial strategy and likely increased Parish's housing allocation. Neighbourhood Plan may find itself evolving alongside the review process. Reference Herriad, Parish Council owns one of their house and has nomination rights (decides who has tenancy). Also noted St Mary Bourne – creative policies for housing requirements.
Advice from Cllr Ruffell as portfolio holder for Planning and Infrastructure – keep it simple and the process not too onerous.
 - 4.4 Boundary review – New Ward recommendations will now be implemented May 2020 when all BDBC ward councillors will stand for election.

4.5 Langdale application for new plot

Cllr Ruffell spoke in opposition to this application to the Development Control Committee. DC Councillors sympathetic but no Policy on which to base a refusal. So was approved at DC. Note, the application for a house on the plot refused by BDBC has gone to Appeal, submissions to PINS by 20th March.

Cllr Ruffell left the meeting with the thanks of all.

5 MINUTES OF LAST MEETING of 2nd January agreed and signed.

6 DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST in items on the Agenda – None.

7 PARISH ELECTIONS7.1 Councillor resignation

Lynda Plenty has submitted her resignation with immediate effect due to increased work commitments. The Chairman thanked Lynda for her time and contribution as Parish Councillor. Her input and perspective will be greatly missed.

7.2 Nomination papers for May elections

All other current Parish Councillors will stand again. Alison Mosson also agreed to stand. Nominations papers completed and signed. Clerk to submit to BDBC.

8 EDDIE RAPLEY

With great sadness we record the death of Eddie Rapley. Thanks are due to Ross Palmer for his tribute / obituary written for the Newsletter and to which many contributed. See APPENDIX I. Eddie and Betty were mainstays of Cliddesden life for so long, including the Parish Council, many years spent – with Betty's support – by Eddie as Parish Clerk.

Eddie's sister requested a memorial tree. There is already a tree planted in honour of Eddie and Betty at the Village Hall grounds.

AGREED As advised by Tree Warden Alison Mosson, a Cherry Tree will be planted adjacent to the pond. (Eddie supported the 'Cherries' – AFC Bournemouth, formerly (1890-1972) Boscombe St John's Institute FC.) Tree Warden to decide position and variety. Memorial plaque also needed.

9 PLANNING

9.1 Light pollution As per Public Session, Simon Barker reported in hand.

9.2 Neighbourhood Plan

New website at <https://cliddesdennp.wixsite.com/cliddesdennp>
Village Design Guides

Funding has been allocated for 'Village Design Guides' The funding is provided via 'Locality' (<https://locality.org.uk/>) who commission AECOM.

The Village Design Guides will build on the Village Design Statement, but be appended to the Neighbourhood Plan as part of a Design Policy. A Draft is likely to be produced by April – and so the NP Questionnaire is now scheduled for early May so the two can be consulted on together.

First stage: Steering group held meeting initial meeting and village walk with AECOM Monday 25th February. Draft schedule see APPENDIX II.

9.3 Parish Planning applications for discussion

See APPENDIX III for all current planning application relating to the Parish.

APPENDIX I EDDIE RAPLEY (1932–2019): A LIFE WELL-LIVED

Edmund George (“Eddie”) Rapley, a much-loved and respected elder of Cliddesden, who sadly passed away on 18 January, aged 86, was something of an enigma, able to switch seamlessly between being a champion of formality and protocol to his clowning, self-parodying, public alter ego. Friends and acquaintances would be familiar with both in large dollops. A man of many parts, Eddie lived a full and active life in the UK and America.

Born in Bournemouth on 13 March 1932, he attended Holy Cross Grammar School in Boscombe, where he first met Betty. With his sister, Irena, he was sent to the North of England to relatives during the war, while his mother and other sister, Lilian, stayed in London. Eddie was an altar boy, who, despite having “a lapsed Catholic upbringing” (his words), wanted to become a priest ... until he met Betty.

Leaving school at 16, to work for Whites Furniture Company, he later moved to Tiverton to join Marley Tiles Roofing Company. After 2 years’ National Service with (and playing soccer for) the RAF, spent in an observation caravan high in the hills above Dover, Eddie returned to Bournemouth, married Betty in 1956 and they moved back to Devon.

They lived in America for 4 years, helping his family cope with a tragic loss, before returning to England, where they attended Teachers’ Training College in Winchester (having first considered being pub landlords), finally settling in Cliddesden around 1970 and travelling frequently to California and Virginia to visit his sisters and families.

In the 1980s, they were both local teachers – Eddie at

Stratton Park School and Betty at Cranbourne. Disappointingly for the couple, they were childless, but, perhaps as one of life’s compensations, Eddie’s avuncular nature as Deputy Head evoked warm recognition many years later by huge numbers of their young - and old - students.

Eddie was an avid and enthusiastic artist and several of his paintings now provide therapeutic comfort to Betty in the care home where, sadly, she suffers from Alzheimer’s. He was also a magician of sorts, with his nieces, nephews and friends in awe of him and his tricks - it is believed that he was inducted into the Magic Circle.

The couple idolised each other and together were a force to be reckoned with, being pivotal in the late 1990s in raising funds to build the Cliddesden Millennium Hall, which otherwise may well not have not been built. Betty, as Hall Secretary for most of that period, took on all the National Lottery paperwork and demonstrated very persuasive techniques on all those she met to assist in some way. (To be honest, it was often wise to be elsewhere when Betty was on a mission!) In recognition of their hard work, Eddie and Betty were invited to a Royal Garden Party at Buckingham Palace.

Much of Eddie’s mock-acerbic wit fell upon Betty. Witnessing these exchanges lay somewhere between embarrassment and mirth until Betty’s “Oh, Eddie!” attested that all was well at no. 24!

Please continue reading overleaf

APPENDIX I – ContinuedEDDIE RAPLEY (1932–2019): A LIFE WELL-LIVED

The formidable Rapley double-act also manifested itself in Eddie's 4 terms, around 16 years, as Clerk to Cliddesden Parish Council (CPC), which he took extremely seriously (along with regularly moving to finish the meetings well before closing time!) and in which Betty acted as his willing, unpaid but dutiful clerical assistant. He also served on the old village hall committee and 5 years as a governor at Cliddesden School, also helping with the children's football practice, school trips and as Santa at the School Christmas Fayre.

Betty's contribution to the fledgling Cliddesden Players was considerable and this high-quality acting fraternity now has a very large and loyal following in this corner of North Hampshire. From 1999 she directed plays and, characteristically, got everyone she needed, willingly or otherwise, for her successful stage events. Eddie was the authoritative radio voice for Sir William Forrest in "Have a Nice Day" in 2004 and he briefly appeared once as a King, giving away his princess daughter in marriage (think Sean Connery in "Robin Hood, Prince of Thieves", but on a local scale). In the words of a Players source, "I think it fair to say that he nailed the brief – but he never declared whether that was through genius or incompetence." The programme for one of these plays, "Housekeeper Wanted", carries a footnote stating, "Thanks to Eddie for producing 'the ugly ornament'"!

Eddie also helped in the hall kitchen and bar (the latter of which, as friends will know, was akin to leaving the cat in charge of the cream ... but a well-disciplined cat), and he was a member of the distinguished, mature drinkers' group, dubbed "The Saga Louts" by the Jolly Farmer bar staff.

As a massive sports fan, he played tennis, table-tennis and football and enjoyed horse-racing, especially "Glorious Goodwood". They both always kept their faith with Bournemouth FC ("The Cherries"), regularly travelling long distances to see them play and it was serendipitous that Eddie lived long enough to see them finally succeed to the Premier League.

But, in later life, it was in his passion for all things golf where Eddie's star shone brightest. A hard-working and committed Secretary, Seniors Captain and Club Captain of the Basingstoke District Hospital Golf Club, which spawned Weybrook Park Golf Club (WPGC) in the early 1990s, he also served there as a Board member, Director and ultimately as Life President.

His own golf prowess is marked by entries on the Club's Honours Boards. Perhaps the best way of describing his life and times at WPGC, where he and Betty also celebrated their golden wedding, is in Eddie's own words that reflect his well-known dry wit - "I have acted in every capacity at this Club, except that of Lady Captain!!"

Never a devoted gardener, Eddie was, nevertheless, an enthusiastic member of the Cliddesden, Farleigh Wallop and Ellisfield Horticultural Society and did sterling service on the committee, during which time he supported the craft and photography classes in the shows, with some success. At his last show in spring 2016, he won the trophy for best craft exhibit. His support for "The HortSoc" extended to writing bulletins and show reports in the village magazines, although these were invariably a vehicle for him to include the fortunes and misfortunes of his beloved "Cherries"!

They certainly broke the mould when they built Eddie Rapley and, with his beloved Betty, who sadly does not currently enjoy good health, he will be sorely missed around and beyond the patch. He was a good husband, son, brother, uncle, great-uncle ... and a truly good friend to all who knew him. But, even as you read this, I like to think that Eddie, bless him, is already working diligently on his artworks, wine-tasting expertise and golf handicap in some other place. "Watch your heads - FORE!"

Eddie's funeral will take place at St Leonard's Church, Cliddesden, on 6 March at 11.30am. Donations, in lieu of flowers, will be divided equally between The Alzheimers' Society and St. Leonard's Church, Cliddesden.

Ross Palmer

(With my thanks to those of you who contributed memories for this tribute and apologies that I have been unable to include your many personal anecdotes, but I know we shall all be talking about the Rapleys for many years to come)

APPENDIX II – NOTES ON DESIGN GUIDES FROM AECOM

Design Guides can be tailored to the key issues affecting (or likely to affect) Cliddesden. I would expect to include sections on the following (not a definitive list at this stage):

- History and Culture
- Existing layout
- Existing densities
- Agricultural green fingers
- Significant buildings
- Gateways
- Businesses and industry
- Form and massing of buildings
- Roofscapes
- Extensions
- Parking
- Materials
- Boundary treatments
- Hedgerows and trees

SCHEDULE FROM NOW TO PARISH ASSEMBLY

1. MARCH – AECOM to undertake desktop survey of Cliddesden to map designations (listed buildings, extent of Conservation Area, SINCs etc), key routes, history and review planning history / policy.
2. MARCH – AECOM to undertake survey of Cliddesden (area defined by Neighbourhood Plan red line). Possible visits to viewpoints beyond the red line that offer views over Cliddesden.
3. APRIL – Questions arising from survey work.
4. APRIL – AECOM prepare draft Design Guide. Working on draft in April.
5. APRIL / MAY – Workshop for working group members in Cliddesden, hosted by AECOM, to agree which sections of the draft Design Guide would benefit from public input and to discuss and agree wording of emerging Design Principles.
- 6. PARISH ASSEMBLY – 17TH MAY
AECOM to provide selected sections of the draft report in A1 format for CPC to discuss with the public and to gather feedback on the emerging design principles.
7. AECOM to provide draft Design Guide (in full) to Cliddesden working group for review over next two weeks.
8. INCLUSION IN QUESTIONNAIRE?

Findings and Recommendations

The assessment was undertaken by PTS Directors Andrew Jones and Sam Wakefield on 5th January 2018, from the ground in all cases. No specialist equipment was used. Weather conditions on the day were still, dry and clear. All measurements are approximate.

See Appendix 1 on Page 8 for accompanying Site Sketch Map.

Tree Id	Description	Recommendations (& alternative options)	Priority
T1	Semi mature Rowan; slightly one-sided crown due to proximity of T2. Few low branches overhang parking spaces, obstruction likely to increase when in leaf.	Tip lift to 3m branches overhanging parking spaces
T2	Early mature Birch; double-stemmed at 1m, previously crown reduced at 5m. BT and covered power lines run through the crown. Crown hangs low on the south side over Church Lane. Scattering of dead wood in the crown to be expected in a tree this age and size.	Crown reduce to previous reduction points (to take below cables).
		Cut back overhang to kerbside
T3	Early mature Mountain Ash; dense crown overhangs telephone box. Branches rub against telegraph pole. BT and covered power lines run through the crown. See image 1	Remove branches rubbing against telegraph pole
		Crown reduce by c. 1m to take below cables
T4	Mature Willow; multi-stemmed at 0.75m, signs of decay in lower stems, x1 dead stem on south side. Crown hangs low over pond. BT and covered power lines run through the crown. See image 2	Remove dead stem
		Crown reduce by c. 5m to reduce weight on potentially decayed stems and take below cables
T5	Semi mature Mountain Ash; double-stemmed at base, ivy-clad, BT and covered power lines run through the crown.	Crown reduce to 1m below cables
T6	Semi mature Mountain Ash; multi-stemmed at base, BT and covered power lines run through the crown.	Crown reduce to 1m below cables
G7	Group of mature Cornus; all have been cut back to kerbside along the boundary with the farm driveway.	No action
T8	Semi mature Willow; degree of movement detected at the root plate when pressure was	Fell

		Crown reduce by c. 3m to reduce weight on old pollard heads and base supporting many stems
		Pollard to 1.5m  (see conclusion)
T13	Semi mature Willow; multi-stemmed at base, historically pollarded at c. 1.5m. X1 branch overhangs driveway on the east side has been removed; x1 long leaning stem remains.	Remove long leaning stem
		Pollard to c. 1.5m ***
T14	Semi mature Willow; multi-stemmed at base, historically pollarded at c. 1.5m	Crown reduce by c. 3m to reduce weight on old pollard heads and base supporting many stems
		Pollard to 1.5m  (see conclusion)
T15	Mature Willow; overhangs run-off channel. Multi-stemmed at base, ivy-clad with a curry plant understory. Previously cut back from driveway to avoid impeding passing vehicles. X1 long, leaning branch.	Cut back long leaning branch to fence line
		Pollard to c. 1.5m  (see conclusion)
T16	Mature Cherry; now single stemmed as a result of historical removal of twin stem, previously crown reduced at 7m.	No action
T17	Semi mature Birch; tall and thin as a result of planting close to adjacent trees, planting stake remains.	Remove stake
G18	X3 clumps of Willow; regularly coppiced to 1m on the north side of the pond bank.	No action
